ABOUT PLEO'S EVENT

Pleo, a leading expense management software company, hosted Beyond to address the challenges faced by finance leaders in today's dynamic environment.

With the theme "Striking the Balance Between Trust and Control," the event explored how modern financial systems can foster accountability while empowering teams with trust-based frameworks.

INTRODUCTION DELIVERING TRUSTED EXPERTISE

In October 2024, finance professionals from across the UK gathered at Pleo's Beyond event to explore cutting-edge strategies for modernising financial control.

To ensure the event delivered impartial, actionable insights, Pleo turned to Amna Zaidi, FCA, CMgr, MCMI—a finance transformation expert with over 20 years of experience.

Amna's ability to distil complex challenges into clear, tangible strategies helped attendees embrace transformative change with clarity and confidence.

This case study showcases her contributions and the lasting impact of her involvement.

THE CHALLENGE: ELEVATING FINANCIAL CONTROL

Pleo set out to deliver a high-impact event that resonated deeply with finance leaders navigating the complexities of modern financial control. Key challenges included:

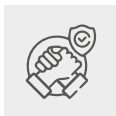

Aligning Financial Systems

Ensuring systems evolve alongside dynamic business strategies.

Data-Driven Decisions

Leveraging analytics to manage risks and identify growth opportunities.

Balancing Trust and Accountability

Fostering a culture of trust while maintaining transparency and control.

To address these challenges effectively, Pleo needed a speaker who could offer actionable strategies, provide real-world leadership insights, and engage the audience with credibility and relatability.
